

Revered master in Africa

c 160 AD
2nd Cen AD

Christians adopted the modern format we call a "book".
Formerly it was "a writing scroll"

C.160

(C130 - ?) LUCIUS APULEIUS

fl. 2nd Cent.

Roman rhetorician and satirist.
Remembered particularly for his
"Metamorphoses", or 'the Golden Ass', a satire on the vices of the time.

born - Hysia

"PERIEGESIS or Guide-book of Greece" in 10 books, by PAUSANIAS, the PERIEGETE (about 160)
of great value in Greek art
and topography

C160

C100-C165

1912 Dates J-BK

JUSTIN THE MARTYR

An early Christian Apologist. Studied philosophy in the Stoic and Platonic schools, and was converted to Christianity.

Was the author of "Apologies for the Christians" and "Dialogue with TRYPTON, the Jew."

VALENTINIANISM

This Gnostic heresy, formulated by Valentinus (died 160), taught that mankind is divided into 3 classes: material men predestined to destruction; psychic men who may attain salvation through redemption; and spiritual or perfect men who are destined to eternal life. The heresy was refuted by ST. IRENAEUS